The State Planning Review Revealed

On Tuesday 10 June the State Government announced the much anticipated findings of the State Planning and Development Review under the banner "Better Planning Better Future".

The Planning Institute of Australia SA Division has arranged this special seminar as a prime opportunity for the planning and development industry to hear about the proposed changes to the planning system from strategic planning right through to development assessment.

The seminar will cover issues from the Planning Review recommendations including:

- Increased focus on Strategic Planning
- A new Regional plan for Adelaide
- Growth corridors and Transit Oriented Development
- Streamlining development assessment including a new Residential Code
- Fast tracked land release
- Changes to public notification
- Restructuring of Planning SA to meet the challenges
- And more...

This seminar is an absolute must for all planners in South Australia and anyone with an interest or stake in planning outcomes in South Australia.

This session will included presentations by:

- Michael O'Brien MP, Chair, Planning and Development Review Steering Committee
- John Hanlon, Acting Chief Executive, Planning SA
- Stuart Moseley FPIACPP, Panel Member, Planning and Development Review Steering Committee

Registrations are due by COB Thursday 19 June 2008.
Places are strictly limited so book now to ensure your seat.

The Planning Institute of Australia is committed to encouraging the use of walking, cycling and public transport ahead of the use of private vehicles as a means of travel. We are holding this event in a central location that is highly accessible to public transport, particularly the tram routes, but with equally good access for train and bus services and cyclists. Please avoid driving to the city for this event by making use of the route planners, timetables and other information available at http://www.transport.sa.gov.au/environment/travelsmartsa/access_guides.asp
